Counter and Cross-Claimants.)

This court has learned that the legislation referred to by the parties as the "Bosco legislation," was signed into law by President Reagan on October 31, 1988. It appears that the passage of this legislation renders the above case moot.

Accordingly, and good cause appearing, plaintiffs, shall, within 14 days of the date of this order, either file and serve a voluntary dismissal or a memorandum showing cause why this case should not be dismissed in light of the above legislation, and exactly what issues remain. In the event plaintiffs elect to show cause, defendants shall file a response within 7 days of receipt of said response.

Plaintiffs may file a reply within 7 days of the receiving the response. There shall be a page limit of 15 pages (excluding
